Dear Randolph Reese:

Pertaining to Application No. 09/945,501 - Filing Date 08/31/2001, and our conversation regarding the denial of my request to please withdraw Holding Of Abandonment, due to the fact that I never received a Notice Of Allowance. Yet I did receive all past Office Actions, as well as the Notice Of Abandonment (US Post Marked Jul 8 2004 and received Jul 14 2004) to the registered name, address, and application number above.

I'm an independent inventor with small entity status and was working out of my father in-laws home and garage which my wife and I lived for 2 years. The structure in which I received mail was through a mail box on the curb in which I emptied every day and then immediately sorted and put all business and US Patent mail in their respected files. I had received and responded to all US Patent Office Actions and Letters during this time. We moved out September of 2003 and my father and mother in-law moved in. The structure in which I received US Patent mail continued to be through the mail box on the curb at the same address above. My father in-law checks the mail daily and brings it into the house and then sorts my mail from his and puts my mail in a separate envelope file with my name respectively. I then pick up my 2-3 times a week and then take it back to my home office in which I file all US Patent Office letters in my file cabinet. And I have received all of my Petscape, Inc. letters and US Patent Office letters without any problems except for the Notice Of Allowance letter, which for some reason I never received. I did receive all US Patent Office letters which were sent before and after the undelivered or non-received Notice Of Allowance letter. My father in-law is the only person to bring the mail in every day and is well aware that I am waiting for US Patent Office letters and the importance of those letters pertaining to my career and the future I may provide for his daughter. He is a retired Attorney to the Governor of Puerto Rico and extremely diligent and responsible when sorting my mail. And there isn't any reason after 3 years that I would neglect to respond to the most important US Patent Office letter of them all, when I responded to all others. Please withdraw Holding of Abandonment and re-mail my Notice Of Allowance to the name and address above.

Respectfully Submitted,
Glenn Martyn
